RURAL FEEL WITH TOWN APPEAL

This gorgeous home has warmth that you don't witness every day. The home has been tastefully refurbished with a new kitchen and bathroom and new flooring and paint throughout. Outside, you will find a good size secured yard with single lock up garage which features electricity and extra storage for the camper trailer and a spa bath with solar hot water for the end of a hard day's work. This property has everything you need including air conditioning and separate study – first home buyers mark this one down, it's close to the local school and not far from town.. Contact Phil Pearson for further questions and even an inspection.
