Kinchela

KINCHELA CREEK FRONTAGE

Located on the Lower Macleay is this extremely fertile ex dairy farming country. 27.52 ha - 68 acres in size, this farm has the ability to run and fatten large numbers of cattle across excellent coverings of kikuyu and clover.

The rich alluvial soils make it possible for cultivation and crop production, pasture improvement or market gardening.

Improvements on the property are numerous and include 2 original farmhouses that are both currently tenanted, decommissioned dairy bales and large machinery shed.

The property itself is perfectly positioned and enjoys esplanade frontage to Kinchela Creek, is within a short stroll to the magical Macleay river and is within 10 minutes of the white sand beaches of Hat Head and South West Rocks, which places this property in a much sought after and admired location.
