

New Colorbond Garage being constructed!

This well maintained home is located in a quiet area and has verandahs on three sides. You will be able to enjoy the mountain views if has to offer. Comprising 4 bedrooms with three of the bedrooms a really good size and the 4th bedroom is great for a study or small child's room.Very affordably priced for a young family and there is even solar hot water which should save you some money. The landlord has paid a deposit to build a double garage in the back yard and fencing will be completed and secure once built, which should be the end of September 2019. This will be great for a two car family. A pet will be considered with good references.
