

Watch the Grass Grow to the Sounds of the Surf

Highly productive 42.12 Ha (106 acre) fattening block which is only a few minutes' drive from the pristine and popular Crescent Head beach network. With kikuyu, paspalum and buffalo grass pastures, this fully fenced block is capable of running and fattening huge numbers of cattle, has the added advantage of town water, and esplanade deep water frontage. There is power connected to old dairy bales, a machinery shed and stables complex, which doubles as a great weekender allowing you to do your cattle work and catch a wave (or a mud crab across the road) all in the same day. Dwelling entitlement STCA council road frontage, several paddocks with laneway system, and close to beaches, town and motorway. Productive and Peaceful!
