Not often do homes come up just a short drive from Kempsey in the very sought after area of Sherwood. This bright and sunny three bedroom home has that extra space around it if you really want to get away from neighbors being too close. It has a wonderful big back entertaining area that you will love for summer entertaining, it even has a spa bath too. The gardens are well established and the handyman of the family will love the big shed with good lockup storage area and parking room for two vehicles. Great if you have toys and tools you need to secure away. This home has ceiling fans as well. This is a working cattle farm and the rest of the acres, shedding and cattle yards are not included.
