257 Belmore River Right Bank Rd, Belmore River

Rural and Water Views

This quality residence is being offered for rent for the very first time and will suit a family who need to have space around them. Situated out of town this home enjoys both rural and water views. There are three bedrooms and two have very good built-ins, large formal lounge room with a bay window, spacious eat-in kitchen with good storage plus a sun room which could also make a family area if you need that extra living space. Also in the garage is an office area which could also suit someone that does work from home as well. Out the back there is a great entertaining BBQ area that has easy access to a second toilet. you are only leasing the home and the house block as this is a working farm. References are required.
