Great little home

Coming back onto the rental market is this low maintenance home in South West Rocks. It has a smaller manageable yard and a side covered patio area for a outdoor setting which leads off the main living area which is open planned. There are two bedrooms with built-ins and the main bathroom has access to the main bedroom. The kitchen is well planned and has plenty of cupboard space and the little laundry off the kitchen has access to the outside. The garage has a remote control on the garage door and access to the inside. Ideally this would suit a single person or couple and there isn't a lot of steps either. No pets please.
