

Looking for out of town?

Onto the rental market is this comfortable three bedroom home on a large block. It has wood heating plus ceiling fans and a reverse cycle air conditioner so you should be comfortable year round. The deck at the rear has just been completed and its a great spot to sit and relax with a cool drink after work. There is also a very large shed and double carport for all your extra items you need to store. Owner will consider a dog if references are good. Ready to go so you just need to arrange an inspection.
