A real surprise package

Nestled behind the hedge is this beautifully renovated home. It offers three bedrooms, an office, two good size living areas and two bathrooms which definitely makes it ideal for a family needing space. There is a lot of character with polished floor boards and some ornate ceilings as well. Off the family room is a deck that also would please the family that like to entertain outdoors. Very good parking for your vehicles with a carport and a lockup garage and ample concreted area in front of them. This home is a real surprise package and is worthy of your inspection. Definitely no pets please.
