86 River Street, Kempsey

Such a lovely river view!

From the back deck of this home you can relax and enjoy the expansive river views it has to offer. Very well maintained this home has three bedrooms and an office area or study room for working from home if need be. It has a large dining room off the kitchen area and the lounge room is completely separate and opens out to the decking. This home also has a large room underneath the home ideal for an extra living area or hobby room. It is very well equipped for summer with ceiling fans and a reverse cycle split system. The yard is well fenced and there is also an outside toilet which is great for little children.
