Stunning Family Residence with views

This stunning family home is located just out of town on beautifully manicured gardens with one of the best views a home could offer. Perfect for anyone that would like to escape from the pressures of work and relax away from everyone. This home has 4 bedrooms all with built ins plus an office fully set up with desk and storage so if you work from home it is perfect. The main bedroom has a big walk-in robe and an ensuite as well as having it's own separate sitting room to relax and enjoy the views. You will love the large open living areas that would offer you lots of space. But if you really enjoy cooking then you will instantly fall in love with the magnificent kitchen that can open out to the massive screened in back verandah which would be ideal for your special family get togethers. The screened in back verandah also overlooks the in ground swimming pool. Words cannot describe how beautiful this home is and only an inspection will do it justice. Call today to arrange this.
