Wanting out of Town?

Not far from Kempsey is this well maintained four bedroom home set on a large block with established gardens. This farm house has an ensuite bathroom and massive living and dining room as well as an eating area off the kitchen. it has polished floor boards all the way through and a wood heater for the cooler months. You will love the big verandahs that go all the way around, its a great spot to sit and enjoy the view. There is also a two bay carport area for your vehicles and the landlords may consider a pet if references are good. This is a working cattle property and you are only leasing the home and the house block.
