

Lovely Rural Views

Looking for out of town living in a real country style farmhouse? This three bedroom home has just had some renovation and is waiting for a family to love it. Very spacious living area and a dining area that opens onto the verandah. The kitchen has only just been put in as well. There is also a large double garage. You are only leasing the house and the house block as the rest of the acres are a working cattle property. References are required please.
