Stunning Executive Residence.

Never has this home been offered on the rental market so if you are looking for something very special on a large block on the edge of town then book an inspection today! Stunning four bedroom home with large open plan living that opens onto a massive outdoor entertaining area deck at the rear. If you are looking for that extra space for the children than this is the home for you. There is also a large double garage if you are a two car family. Owners will consider pets if your references are very good in that regard. You will definitely need a ride on mower as well.
