Yarrahapinni

Yarrahapinni Magic

One of the last undeveloped vacant blocks of its size in the area, this stunning 26.25Ha (64.8 acre) allotment is tucked away on a quiet country lane, but is still less than 10 minutes to the coastline. The predominantly cleared block was once used for dairying and small cropping with fertile soils now supporting improved pastures for beef cattle, and pockets of rainforest along the creek banks (complete with it's own mini waterfall!). There are several wonderful home-sites offering great views, old machinery and parking sheds (once the old homestead), stockyards and power is available. Ideal for avocados, tropical fruit, macadamias, small crops and a great place to live!
