Temagog

RIVERFRONT GRAZING

With close to 2km of Macleay River frontage, Temagog Creek frontage and 2 large dams, water will never be an issue with this productive 104.7 hectare (258.7 acre) grazing property, only 25 minutes from town. The current owners are presently carrying approximately 120 breeders and producing silage from some planted pasture for winter feed. Divided into several paddocks and with a set of stockyards with vet crush and loading race, the property runs from river flats to gently undulating ridges and is mainly cleared. A 2 bedroom timber cottage, 2 bedroom flat, open front machinery shed and fowl pens and bird aviaries round out the improvements on this excellent upriver holding
